FRANKLINTON CONVENTION.

The delegates to this Convention are requested to meet together on FRIDAY THE 11TH DAY OF NOV. next, at 12 o'clock M., at Franklinton, in order to nominate a candidate of the Conservative party for the House of Representatives of the United States, in the place of the Hon. Robert B. Gilliam, deceased. A full attendance is anxiously desired.

WM. EATON,
October 24, 1870. President.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON.

In our last Saturday's issue we briefly called attention to a communication published in the last number of the Old North State, over the nom de plume of "Fair Play," attempting some apology for the criminal conduct of Chief Justice Pearson, in anticipation of the probability of his impeachment at the approaching session of the General Assembly. We advert to it again to-day because we have reason to believe that its preparation and publication were prompted directly or indirectly by Judge Pearson, and to correct the gross misstatement of facts, and the misrepresentation of motives contained in it.

Taking any view of that apology, it is a lame one indeed, and betrays not only the weakness of the defense, but also a lack of professional tact. It questions and assails the motives of those who impute criminality to the conduct of the Chief Justice, and grossly misstates facts that are incontrovertible, instead of stating facts as they are, and then showing that his conduct was sanctioned by the Constitution and laws of the land. The motives of those who complain of him are matters of trifling moment; the graver matter is, is the Chief Justice guilty of crime for which he may be impeached?

This apologist of his says, in substance, that the Ku Klux had perpetrated unheard-of crimes, that Gov. Holden had called out the militia of the State to suppress them and had arrested many prominent citizens; that persons so arrested applied to the Chief Justice for writs of habeas corpus; that he granted the same, and that Gov. Holden and his subordinates refused to obey them, and that the Chief Justice had no power to give effect to the writs and did not, therefore, set at liberty a large number of citizens confessedly held in close and forcible custody unlawfully; that the action of the Chief Justice in so doing was sustained by that of the late Chief Justice Taney of the Supreme Court of the United States. He denounces the Ku Klux, charges good men with sympathizing with them and their crimes, and attributes the complaints against the Chief Justice to political motives and criminal sympathy with the Ku Klux. This is the whole ground of the apology or defense, but not as strongly put, as we put it here.

Now let us see what the facts are, as they can and will be proved to be, if required, by the records of the Courts, and by witnesses whose veracity cannot and will not be questioned—witnesses, too, from both political parties. Of course, the number of which had been greatly exaggerated for political purposes here and elsewhere, had been secretly perpetrated, mainly in the county of Alamance, and most of them many months before the late elections in this State. A few weeks before the election, Gov. Holden, under pretense of suppressing these crimes, proclaimed the counties of Alamance and Caswell in a state of insurrection, and recruited and armed, at the public expense, a large body of selected, violent and desperate men, many of them from the State of Tennessee, commanded mainly by one George W. Kirk, one Berry and one Yates, all notorious desperadoes from the State of Tennessee. These armed desperadoes were not militia, nor did they purport to be; they were called "State Troops" by Gov. Holden, and he did not, at first, profess to raise them by virtue of any statute or written law of the State, but on the higher law doctrine thrown out by Chief Justice Pearson, that "the safety of the State is the Supreme law."

Gov. Holden sent these lawless, armed men to the counties of Alamance and Caswell, and they, without any warrant or shadow of lawful authority, violently arrested scores of peaceable citizens, many of them among the most prominent and respectable in the State. Many persons so arrested were outraged in the most brutal and inhuman manner and were kept in close custody for weeks, and some of them were cast into a loathsome dungeon and manacled close to a wretch condemned to death for the crime of rape. There was no sanction of law for these outrages; they were monstrous, shocking and unheard-of, and gave rise to wide-spread alarm and indignation. Steps were taken by Gov. Holden to raise a "Military Commission" to try some of these persons so arrested, which and execute them in defiance of the law of the land.

If the crimes had been perpetrated as alleged, the law provided the amplest remedy, but no effort had been made to bring the alleged offenders to justice according to law. The conduct of Gov. Holden was not only without any sanction of law, it was wilful, defiant and wicked; there was not even an honest purpose to bring offenders to justice, as the sequel to his war shows.

The persons thus arrested and menaced, applied through counsel to Chief Justice Pearson, the highest law officer in the State, for writs of habeas corpus; these he granted; he could not refuse to do so without incurring a penalty of $2,500; these writs were duly delivered to Kirk who held the persons in custody; he refused to make return to the writs and bring the persons held by armed force before the Court; he sent word to the Chief Justice that he would not do so, that he held the persons by order of Gov. Holden, and that "such papers had played out." These facts were made duly to appear before the Chief Justice, and the counsel for the persons for whose benefit the writs had been issued, moved before the Chief Justice that he forthwith issue the writ of attachment against Kirk for such refusal and for the insulting message sent to the Court, and for a precept, commanding some Sheriff to bring the parties in custody before the Court. This motion was made on a Monday morning at 10 o'clock; instead of granting the motion, as it was his plain duty to do according to all law and precedent and the very letter of our statute, he asked the counsel to argue the motion, and said he would hear them the next morning at 9 o'clock! The counsel were astonished, shocked at such a request. After a moment's pause they suggested that their clients were in imminent peril of being tried before a military commission and shot. He then said he would hear the argument at 3 o'clock P. M., that day. When the appointed hour arrived a brief argument was heard. He then refused to grant the writ of attachment against Kirk and send a precept to bring the persons held in custody, as the plain letter of the law and all precedent required he should do, but produced from his pocket a letter written by himself, before hearing the argument, addressed to Gov. Holden, asking him if he had ordered Kirk to make the arrests. He then said he would defer any other action until the next morning, 9 o'clock.

The next day the Governor sent the Chief Justice his reply which was read; he then produced from his pocket another paper written by himself, before hearing a word from counsel, in reference to the Governor's message, suggesting certain questions he wished to hear debated by counsel. The questions thus propounded fitted Gov. Holden's reply as completely as if they had been framed upon it, and this was so manifest, as to excite remark as soon as they were read. The counsel were again astonished, but went on to debate the questions propounded. This discussion lasted three or four days. The Chief Justice then declared his opinion, solemnly deciding that he would not grant the writ of attachment against Kirk, nor would he grant it against the Governor. He refused absolutely to grant the writ of attachment, but granted a precept directed to the Marshal of the Supreme Court, commanding him to bring the persons for whose benefit the writs had issued before him, but at the same time he told the Marshal simply to go and tell the Governor he had the precept, and if the Governor refused to deliver the men, then to return it with that fact.

In the opinion delivered by the Chief Justice, he held that the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended, and that it was the duty of the Governor and Kirk to obey the writs, and he trusted he would do so, unless, he suggested, the Governor should act on the extreme principle, "that the safety of the State is the Supreme law." He threw out this suggestion, going out of his way and all judicial propriety to do so. After he did thus much, he said to the counsel of the citizens lawlessly and inhumanly outraged, that his power was exhausted, and that he could and would do no more.—These are the facts.

Now, we say that this course of action has no precedent in this country or England; we say furthermore, that it was directly in the face of the statute of this State on the subject of habeas corpus; in the face of all principle on the subject, and all precedent. We say further, that the facts and circumstances, many significant ones not here enumerated, manifestly show that such deliberate refusal to give efficiency to the writ of habeas corpus was wilful and wicked.

The apologist of the Chief Justice says, he did as Chief Justice Taney did under similar circumstances. This is a total misstatement of the fact; he did just the reverse of what Judge Pearson did. Chief Justice Taney's case was this: Merriman had been arrested in the Spring of 1861 near the city of Baltimore, in a time of war, by an officer of the United States army, and was confined in fort McHenry. His counsel applied to Chief Justice Taney for a writ of habeas corpus; it was promptly granted and delivered to Gen. Cadwalader, the officer in command of the fort; the Gen. made a most respectful return of the writ, suggesting that he had arrested Merriman by order of the President of the United States. That Chief Justice did not ask an argument about his duty and powers, and write a letter to the President asking him if he ordered Gen. Cadwalader to arrest Merriman, but on the contrary, he forthwith, not waiting for counsel to make a motion, but of his own will, ordered the writ of attachment against Gen. Cadwalader for a contempt in not producing Merriman before him. When the Marshal went to serve the attachment he was refused by the military power of the United States, admittance to the fort. He made return of the writ and the facts, and then that Chief Justice directed a transcript of the record to be certified to the President, and his opinion to the effect that the President had subverted the constitution of the country in refusing to obey the writ. He did not suppose to the President that he supposed he would order Cadwalader to surrender Merriman, unless he acted on the principle "that the safety of the State was the supreme law!"

A hundred facts and circumstances in addition to the general one, above stated, all went to show manifestly the partisan, wilful and criminal purpose of Chief Justice Pearson in thus deliberately refusing, under such circumstances, to use the plain means prescribed by law to give efficiency to the great writ of habeas corpus.

We have learned that the counsel who appeared in the habeas corpus cases, at first anticipated a far different course of conduct on the part of the Chief Justice. They were mortified, astonished, astounded at his course. One of the counsel was heard to say with manifest regret, that "the Chief Justice had gone back on the honorable record of a life time in the matter of habeas corpus and civil liberty."

The only excuse for his conduct which he has placed on record is, that he had no sufficient power, and if he had attempted to enforce the writ, the result would have been civil war. The plain answer to this is, he willfully refused, in an hour of imminent public peril, when the Governor had subverted by lawless armed force, public and personal liberty, to put the machinery provided by law for the protection of the liberty of the citizen, into operation. He refused to grant the writ of attachment and to send an officer to see if he could execute the writ. This was a shameful and cowardly subterfuge! The Governor would not have dared to resist the writ sent out to be enforced by the lawful power of the land; no reasonable man so believed. But suppose he had done so, then Judge Pearson would have been right and the Governor would have been wrong; and it were better for the Chief Justice to uphold and defend civil liberty by force, if need be, according to law, than to allow the Executive to subvert it by armed force in defiance of the Constitution and the law of the land. No one knew better than Judge Pearson that Gov. Holden's army was without sanction of law.

Judge Pearson pretends that he feared civil war. O shameful subterfuge! Let us see how his past judicial life comports with this pretended fear. During the late war, he distinguished himself by sending the writ of habeas corpus into the army while we were in a gigantic war; he then compelled reluctant Presidents, Governors, and military fighting Generals to obey the writ; he was not afraid then of civil war; his language then, in time of war was, "let justice be done, though the heavens fall!" The subterfuge is too manifest! He was not afraid of Presidents, Governors, Generals and great armies, in time of war, but he was afraid of Gov. Holden and a band of cut-throats in a time of peace—just before the election!

There is another feature about the habeas corpus cases, which goes to show Judge Pearson's complicity, and collusion, not so much with Gov. Holden, (for he don't like him,) as with the Radical party. When Judge Brooks was about to grant relief, Judge Pearson, at the request of Gov. Holden, came from his home to Raleigh to take further jurisdiction of his habeas corpus cases, after he had said he had exhausted his power. And this he did against the protest of the parties interested; and in order to exclude the jurisdiction of Judge Brooks, he made his record state a falsehood, in this: Kirk surrendered the men in his custody to Judge Pearson in the evening. The Judge made the record say that he surrendered them at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day. It was supposed at the time that this was material to exclude the jurisdiction of Judge Brooks.—The record shows this fact.

The Chief Justice sat in the last bulwark of liberty; he was placed there as its chief guardian; the people looked to him in the last resort to defend and protect public and personal liberty; this he not only failed to do, but actually threw wide the gates and let the enemy in.

We know not what the Legislature may do in this matter, but we have this to say, that body ought to impeach the Chief Justice for wilfully failing and refusing to give efficiency to the writ of habeas corpus, as well as for other grave derelictions of duty and disgraceful conduct in his office, which want of space will not allow us to allude to to-day.

MAJ. GALES.—Some one has handed us the following merited tribute to our townsman, from the Hillsboro' Recorder, which we do not see. Alluding to the call of the Convention, the Recorder says:

In connection with the above call we desire to present the name of Maj. Seaton Gales, of Wake, a worthy son of the illustrious Weston R. Gales, for many years the distinguished Editor of the Raleigh Register. Maj. Gales has never been an office-seeker, but, like his father, believed in the office seeking the man. He is a gentleman whose moral character will compare with the best in the State and whose polished education classes him among the literati of the age. He graduated with the highest distinction at the University of North Carolina some years ago, and has been content to live in private life.

The name of Gales will carry a tower of strength with it in the National House of Representatives, associated as it is with the memory of the National Intelligencer. We suggest the name of Maj. Gales to the consideration of the Franklinton Convention, not doubting should he be its choice, the anti-radical banner will again wave in victory, and that in him North Carolina will have a Representative in Congress she may feel proud to own.

An exchange paper says:

Professor Shoe suggests, with regard to the question of the Bible in schools, that in Prussia, attendance at school is required by law, and the Bible and catechism are compelled to be taught, and yet there is no country in Europe which has less real religion. It is a public formality, the ministers preaching to empty churches, and the people are, for the most part, rationalists, with no faith in any religion."

THE FRANKLINTON CONVENTION.

We hope this Convention will be a full one. Let as many of the delegates as possible attend, in order to have a full expression from the District.

Let the Convention select the man that can win. Several counties deserve the compliment of the nomination, and we would be glad to have all our friends gratified, but we cannot afford to lose the election for the sake of compliments. Our success is not absolutely certain by a great deal. It will depend upon the selection of the proper man to run, and then earnest work upon his part and by all our friends in the canvass. It will be quick work, therefore every lick must tell. The Radicals are already very active and intend to give us a hard tussle for the position. Let us beat them this time, "horse, foot and dragoons," at any sacrifice. We can do it, if we will.

THE CONVENTION.

Our cotemporary, the Wilmington Journal closes an excellent article on a State Convention, in the following appropriate language, which we fully endorse:

The expenses of the Convention will be less than thirty thousand dollars. The State will save the amount in one year by abolishing useless offices alone. By an immediate return to the old court system it will save in one year ten times the amount necessary to hold a Convention. Those who urge delay in this matter unwittingly aid the Raleigh Standard in its efforts to hamper the Conservative party, so that the people will be disappointed with their victory. The voters of North Carolina expect something more of the Legislature than merely not to steal the public moneys.—They demand a decrease in the ordinary expenses of the government, and a security that thieves cannot again steal their funds and appropriate their revenues. If we regard the reasonable demands of our people we can then invite the co-operation of foreigners to help us restore the prosperity of North Carolina. If we attach our own people to our State government we can induce others to believe that it is administered with justice and economy. Through the doors of a Convention alone can we find relief from our present difficulties, and the sooner our people become satisfied of this fact the better it will be for North Carolina.

Overton Collins, col., arrested for being disorderly and going to the house of John Hays and cursing and abusing the said Hays and wife, also threatening to kill the policeman who arrested him; bound over in a bond of $100 to appear at the next term of the Superior Court.

See particularly the notice of Mrs. M. L. Blake, in to day's issue, offering for sale the celebrated Florence sewing machine.

Rev. Dr. Yates, of the Baptist Church, Missionary to China, has taken rooms at the Yarborough House, for the Baptist State Convention, which meets in this city in that time.

Masonic.—There will be a called meeting of Hiram Lodge, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock. Every member is earnestly requested to attend, as a matter of importance will be considered.

Tucker Hall.—At the late hour which we write, a lengthy and descriptive notice of the performance last evening of the celebrated Worrell Sisters and the talented troupe which accompany them, is impossible. We can merely state in general terms the delight and pleasure which the entertainment afforded us, and can heartily endorse the high encomiums which the northern press have lavished upon these renowned actresses. We went to the above named Hall expecting a rich treat and were not in the slightest particular disappointed.

To morrow we will particularize and endeavor to give a just meed of praise to some of the many features of the performance which richly deserve commendation.

Sunday School Meeting.—A very interesting meeting of the Sunday School of the M. E. Church, joined by a number from the Baptist and Presbyterian Sabbath Schools of this city, was held at the M. E. Church on Sunday afternoon last. The singing of the children was very fine. The meeting was opened by prayer by the Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, editor of the Methodist of this city, and very interesting addresses were delivered by Rev. Wm. H. Bobbitt, P. E. of this district, by J. H. Mills, Esq., editor of the Biblical Recorder and by the venerable Rev. B. T. Blake. These meetings have a fine effect upon the children and are very interesting and profitable to old people.

Judge Watts at Halifax.—The robbers of the Railroad cars of the R. & G. Railroad, who were apprehended sometime since, were tried at Halifax the past week before Judge Watts. The notorious J. H. Everett, (a great favorite with Holden,) was found guilty on the first count of the indictment and sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. The second count was held up. George Smith, a colored accomplice, a brakesman on the Road, was also convicted. Sidney Mabry (white) was convicted of horse-stealing and sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. Other cases to be tried this week.

Fatal Accident.—On Sunday, just about night fall, Sam Young, a young colored man about 18 years of age, in the employ of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company, while endeavoring to couple some freight cars at the depot of the Company, was so badly crushed that death ensued in two hours.

We passed last week, without thinking of buying,

We commended at once to take them and risk it,

And ever since then have had excellent biscuit.

Almanacs.—Ennis N. C. Almanac will be out in a few days. It has been delayed on account of an accident to the press on which it was printed. Advertisement to-morrow.

See the card of Mrs. M. L. Jenkins, who has just opened a Boarding House at the Iredell place, convenient to the capitol and business part of the city, and in a most pleasant neighborhood.

Charlotte Fair.—We have received a circular of the Fair of the Mecklenburg Agricultural Society, which comes off at Charlotte commencing 30th November and continuing three days. The list of articles on which premiums are offered is pretty extensive.

CASH CAPITAL AND ASSETS OVER $300,000.

Having taken the General Agency of the State for the above Company, we are prepared to write risks in all parts of the State upon Dwellings, Barns, Factories, Gin houses and other property, at reasonable rates. MARTIN & FINCH, Gen'l Ag'ts.,
sept 25-2m Raleigh, N. C.

The Cry is Still they Come.—The following gentlemen from the North are now stopping at the Yarborough House: Messrs. Everett and Styles, New Hampshire; West and Parker, Conn.; C. S. Bennett and wife, Messrs. McCauley, Beatty, Cherm and Carnaham, Pa.; and McCennen and White, Boston. They have come South on a tour of observation with a view of locating, if suited. Messrs. Bennett, McCauley and Beatty have purchased a large, and we learn, very valuable iron mine in Chatham, which they propose to develop as rapidly as possible. All of these express themselves highly gratified with this section of our State, and with the kindly and hospitable reception they have met with at the hands of our people. The other gentlemen are equally well pleased, and we hope to hear of their locating soon. Thousands of lands and mines in our State now await their skill, energy and labor, and they but consider their own interests by purchasing early.

Our climate particularly pleases this party. We are informed that Mrs. Bennett, in consideration of our genial climate, and of the courteous hospitality of Dr. Blacknall of the Yarborough House, has determined to spend the winter with us. We hope many more of her friends may come and do likewise.

Memorial Services.—Very interesting memorial services were observed on the 3rd, inst. in Newbern, in honor of the late Gen. R. E. Lee. The oration was delivered by Maj. John Hughes,—a very able and interesting one. The entire services were very appropriate.

Peat.—The Norfolk Journal has recently tested the peat manufactured by the Va. Peat Company, out of the peaty lands of the Dismal Swamp. The Journal tried it for fuel, both in a grate and in a stove, and found it to be excellent and preferable to coal. There are inexhaustable quantities of this peaty land in Eastern Carolina, and should the trial near Norfolk succeed, it may bring our swamp lands in this State into market.

STATE ITEMS.

Singular Discovery.—A young man hunting in the woods near Warrenton, one day last week, discovered a cave in a ledge of rocks near Green's mill pond, and in the cave a pile of bones, apparently human, near which lay the barrel of a pistol, of the old flint and steel pattern.

Richard Spearin, at Arcola, Warren county, had his hand and arm badly torn by being caught in a steam cotton gin, on Tuesday last.

Extra trains will run from Warrenton to Weldon this week, during the Fair, on the R. & G. Railroad.

From Wilson, up to September 1st 1,474 bales of cotton were shipped. Of this 95 bales were shipped to Wilmington and 467 to New York and 541 to Baltimore direct.

The Weldon News says that a young lad of eight years, son of Col. Willis Johnson, of Halifax county, was caught in a cotton gin last week, and his left arm was so severely injured that it was found necessary to amputate it at the shoulder.

The Governor has pardoned Granville Jones (colored,) convicted at the last term of Edgecombe Court for murderous assault on Mr. O. M. Mayo.

Geo. H. Freer, Esq., a native of North Carolina, engaged in merchandizing in Norfolk for several years, died in that city on the 1st instant.

The revival which the Warrenton Gazette says has been progressing in the M. E. Church, South, in that place, still continues and a number have made a profession of religion.

Mr. A. McCollum of Moore county, died suddenly in his wagon returning home from Fayetteville on the 29th ult. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church, about 65 years of age and a good citizen. Truly in the midst of life we are in death.

Judge Warren has just returned from the Virginia Springs to his home in Washington. We hope he is much improved in health.

Says a correspondent of the Hillsboro' Recorder, writing from Oxford: "An investigation is going on in Oxford before a Probate Judge between the claims of Edwards and Lassiter for the State Senate. Mark Lanier, Esq., represents Col. Edwards, and Col. Hargrove is the lawyer for Mr. Lassiter. In a discussion to-day Mr. Lanier sprung some point, when words passed between him and Hargrove, and the latter struck him several blows. Mr. Lanier is an old man, some sixty years of age. Col. Hargrove is in his prime.

Rev. T. M. Jones, President of the Warrenton Female College, has received the following note:

Dear Sir: I have a book which "the fortunes of war," put in my possession, in which the name of "Miss Addie Wyatt, Warrenton Female College, N. C.," is written on the fly leaf. If you can give me her present address, I will mail it to her.

Yours very truly,
T. A. Shellenberger,
Rochester, Penn.

A FISHING PARTY.

Mr. Editor:—To wear off the monotony of the times and to have a little recreation from business, a party of ten provided with fishing tackle, guns, ammunition, blankets, &c., left the City of Oaks for a day or two to have a good time in Johnston County, and were not deceived in our anticipations, we assure you. We had a cordial welcome at our stopping place, Mr. Hinnant's mill pond, by Mr. Thos. Hill and all the neighbors for miles around. As to our game and luck in fishing we will sum it up. We caught two hundred and fifty pounds of fish, killed forty ducks, twenty-five squirrels, and as to opossums and old hares, there was no end to them, so you may judge we had some fine dinners, and we all enjoyed it hugely, and were loathe to leave as were our Johnston friends for us to do so, but we finally did so with the promise and hope of paying them another visit.

The fields of cotton along the road looked fine and white and hands were busy picking and singing and seemed to enjoy the sport.

We reached the city safe and sound, feeling no regret at our trip and much better fitted for business.

ONE OF THE PARTY.

Two distinguished philosophers took shelter under one tree during a heavy shower. After some time one of them complained that he felt the rain. "Never mind," replied the other, "there are plenty of trees; when this is wet through we will go to another."

Monday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The highwaymen also secured a mail car on the Pacific Railroad and it is supposed obtained a quarter of a million. Wells, Fargo & Co. offer fifteen thousand dollars for the arrest of the robbers. A ten thousand dollar counterfeit United States bond was passed upon a California Bank. The counterfeiter escaped with the proceeds.

Two artillery companies left Fort Trumbull on Saturday for New York.

Baron Gerolt, the North German Minister have had advices that the negotiations for an armistice have been broken off.

ALABAMA.

Selma, Nov. 5.—This evening a quarrel pending all day between Jack Baxter, white, and Alf Gregory, negro, both brick masons, culminated in the latter being shot and killed. Baxter surrendered to Marshal Watts, from whom he was taken by an improvised mob of negroes, beaten and stripped, and dragged through the streets by ing left for dead. Through the intervention of Gen. Potters and others, the whites who gathered round on hearing of the affair, were restrained from attacking the negroes. A strong posse under Gen. Potters was summoned by the Sheriff, by whom the body of Baxter was taken from the negroes, and the mob dispersed without violence.

The city is quiet to-night. The Court is in session and the rioters will be arrested and punished according to law.

FOREIGN.

The point upon which Thiers was recalled and the armistice failed is stated to be that Bismarck wanted guarantees for the cession of territory, which the Paris Government refused to give. The Prussian Minister at London says that the struggle must continue all the winter.

A serious engagement occurred yesterday on the road from Dijeon to St. Jean de Losne. The Prussians though using artillery and mitrailleuses had at 7 yesterday evening gained no ground. The Francotirs are joined the Prussian attempt to cross the Seine.

The Germans occupy Nantz. The bombardment of Neuf Brisach and Fort Mortier continues. A sortie of the garrison was repulsed.

Rochefort has resigned his position on the Committee of Defence.

Wurtemburg, Baden, Hesse and Darmstadt, have agreed to enter the North German Confederation. Bavaria demands a separate treaty, with military and diplomatic sovereignty.

The fortifications around Paris have now 2 200 guns in position.

Monday's London morning papers report the fraternity of Paris in declining the preliminary overtures to peace.

Advices from Versailles up to Sunday evening, report everything quiet and no fighting for several days.

Fort Montier, at new Breesach, capitulated on Sunday night. The fire within the Fort rendered the place untenable. Its capitulation involves only 225 prisoners and 5 guns.

An editorial in this morning's London Times says that the armistice turned upon the question of ingress and egress at Paris. Thiers insisting and Bismarck refusing.

Belgrade are petitioning the government to exterminate the Jesuits agents.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—The Prussian Governor of Lafaine has ordered a census of persons subject to military duty, prescribing severe penalties for evasions.

London, Nov. 7.—Chinese telegrams up to the 19th of October are warlike. Four gun boats of ten guns each have been launched at Shanghai. The Chinese were importing war materials. No further outrages upon foreigners are reported.

Madrid, Nov. 7.—The Correspondencia of the reported resignation of Morret, Minister of the Colonies, denies the report that Spain has made overtures to the United States for the sale of Cuba. The Correspondencia adds: "The people of Spain would not permit the sale of Cuba to the United States or any other nation upon any terms."

MARKETS.

New York, Nov 7.—Stocks steady; Gold 10½; Money 4 to 6; Sterling, long, 9, short 9½; 60s 8¾.

Flour quiet and unchanged; wheat dull and heavy; Corn scarce and firm; Lard unchanged; Cotton unsettled and lower, Uplands 16¼, Orleans 17½, sales 2,000 bales; Spirits Turpentine firmer at 46; Rosin easier at 1 70.

Liverpool, Nov. 7.—Corn is 30s; Bonds 80½.

Liverpool, Nov. 7.—Cotton heavy, Uplands 9¼ to 9¾, Orleans 9¾ to 9¾.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Nov. 7.—A force of Marines have been sent to Norfolk to preserve order to-morrow.

It is decided that dealers in leaf tobacco are not authorized, as such, to buy or sell refuse scra, s and sweepings in bulk and can only deal therein under bond as tobacco dealers or manufacturers.

LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, Nov. 7.—The election passed off quietly.

ALABAMA.

Selma, Nov. 7.—The city remains quiet. No further disturbance of a serious character since Saturday last. The prudent and prompt action of the white citizens, under instructions from the Sheriff and Mayor, has thus far had the desired effect. Registration on the part of the whites has been unusually brief to-day. The poor white man who was so brutally treated by the negroes on Saturday is still alive.

FOREIGN.

London, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Versailles this morning states that Thiers is still at Prussian headquarters. All hopes of an armistice are not yet yielded; McLanria strongly favors it. A correspondent says, "I have good authority for stating that the bombardment of Paris will commence to-morrow. The Prussians are now resolved to push the war to extremes without an instant delay. A general feeling is spreading all over France in favor of calling the Duc de Aumale to the Presidency of the Republic.

Provisions still leave Liverpool for France. The new French loan is placed on the stock board lists. The present price is 51 on 54 premium.

Tours, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Versailles says, propositions for an armistice have been unanimously refused by the leaders of the Paris government. The reason for this is found in the refusal on the part of Prussia of the project to revictual the city, and also her use as accepts without reserve the scheme for allowing a National Assembly to meet for members of the Constitutional Assembly. The Paris government is supported in its action by the people of all classes.

The Journal Officiale announces the formation of three provinces in Paris; at least a different order existed there.

The government in this city is acting energetically. A universal uprising is expected to take place as it now seems the general impression that Prussia ought to gain time by seeming to admit the possibility of an armistice, in order that the troops now investing Metz could come forward to Paris without danger.

Paris dates of yesterday received at Tours announce that while members of the government are disposed to overlook personal violence toward themselves by the rioters, they had no right to neglect the interests of the Republic, which is still in peril.

Full returns on the question of sustaining the Paris government reached 321 000, nays 62 638. Republican Mayors are elected in nearly all the arrondisments.

The village of Auzon, near Beaune, was twice captured by the Prussians and recaptured each time, the Papal Zouaves giving no quarter, in retaliation for peasant shooting by the Prussians.

Reports come in from parts of France announcing that the entire population is rising to expel the invaders.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000 000 and are constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,000,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of holders, as in case of Mutual Companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The surplus of $1,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders; this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as in the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are favorably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealings so equitable that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment Policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December 1, 1869, was $61,097,161.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on that "Distribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division; and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not exercise proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $15,000 000 greater than any other company.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Ames & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, the simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 100,000 lbs. thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN SEVENTY MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 500 lbs.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the last thread from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet; Size Bale 4½ feet x 28x28 inches; wt. Bale 400 to 500 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the gain upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 9th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economical management, great care and caution in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a corresponding standard of reserve and accountability must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important assurance. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
